Ladies Circle SA

AGM IS AROUND THE CORNER!

Ladies get your registrations in! This year promises to be an AGM not to be missed!

ARTSA 2014 WAS A BLAST

My trip to Artsa 2014 surely was a loooong one, but once I reached PE I had a quick catch-up with LCSA President Sam Kendal, before being home-hosted by Sonel and Woof Lindeque, who would also be my driver for the final stretch to EL.

My back-seat-partner-in-crime all the way to Slammies was Round Table mascot Barry, the baboon!

I was welcomed to Artsa 2014 by outgoing President Andre Krugel and First Lady Brenda, as well as incoming President, Leon Garbade and his lovely wife Robyn. I met so many Tablers, whose names I can't even begin to remember, but I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to all for making me feel welcome and for sharing a pink drink with me!

I had a wonderful time filled with fellowship and fun and enjoyed meeting local and international Tablers and their wives/partners!

My Ladies Circle shirts were a hit at the Table and Area parties and were swapped numerous times! Currently, the "pink shirt" is with RTSA President Leon Garbade and my "I love Ladies Circle" shirt is all the way in Austria with Tabler Werner Lutz!

I particularly enjoyed the "tables" which each area set up with all their regional specialties – melktertjies, mampoer, carpachio - the spread was amazing, but the snuff and "brand water" definitely stood out!

Myself and Bronwenn were also fortunate to have a quick chat with Round Table International President, Moffat Nyirenda, from Zambia.

My speech at the ARTSA AGM was pretty nerve racking, but it went down a treat! In between the pink drinks and fellowship I got a few names and numbers of ladies who are interested in joining Ladies Circle!

WORD FROM THE WEBMASTER

Well done Garden Route Ladies Circle!

Well done to Garden Route Ladies Circle for promoting their Circle in the best way possible! They had their first open meeting held during March 2014. Having an open meeting gives Circles the opportunity to share the good work Ladies Circle do, not only locally, but also nationally and internationally.

Circles have several ways and means to their disposal to use for promotional purposes. As in the previous edition of the newspaper explained, is word of mouth such a way.

KEY WORDS!
Social meetings can increase Ladies Circle exposure.

I dare other Circles to follow their example and promote Ladies Circle by using whatever way they have to their disposal! Let's see if we can increase our member base with at least 20% in the following 6 months!

Below a picture of Garden Route with the ladies who attended the meeting: Elizabeth Theron, Claire Van't Hull, Rochelle Barnard, Nadia Groenewald, Tammy Le Roux, Anthea Anagnostakis, Sharlene Jugnath-Kinsey.

AGM

The AGM is quickly coming closer and all Circlers are once again reminded to get those registrations in. The AGM will be taking place from 23 May to 25 May 2014 and promises to be the one you should not consider to miss out on!

Circlers can look forward to having fruitful discussions on various topics and take home with them tons of enthusiasm and new ideas on how to Circle! Has your Circle run out of ideas for fund raisers? Do you feel that you need some motivation? If your answers are yes, then the AGM is the place you need to be!

Circlers from all over the country attend the AGM and will be there to share their views and ideas with each other. Don't miss out on this great opportunity! See you there!

SHARE YOUR VIDEOS!

Louis Trichardt Ladies Circle supported the children of Heaven Sent! Watch the video on our website!

Louis Trichardt Ladies Circle 4 took a video of the children at Heaven Sent singing to them "ons se baie, baie dankie". This is why we are Circlers! Circling is about making those who are in need of support smile! And that is exactly what Louis Trichardt did!

Circles are welcome to take videos and to send it through to webmaster@ladiescircle.co.za! The more we publish the work we do, the better and more support we will get for the projects we undertake.
